WARS CONTINUE TO RAVAGE EUROPE; NEW ONES THREATENING

FOUR SEPARATE THEATERS OF WAR EXIST IN TURKEY

Armenia Invaded By the Eleventh Soviet Army Corps.

BOLSEVIKI ADVANCE

Unconfirmed Reports State Russians Cross Roumanian Line.

Paris, July 20.—Four separate theaters of war exist within the borders of the old Turkish empire as a result of the invasion of Armenia by the eleventh soviet army.

The other three zones of hostilities are: Anatolia, where the Greeks are driving back the Turkish nationalists; Syria, where the Arab forces of King Feisal are opposing the French; and Thrace, where the Turks are carrying on guerrilla warfare against the Greeks.

A British army assisted by war and the eastern shore of the Sea of Marmora.

Advices from the east indicate that the soviet army which has crossed into Armenia near the Aras river, may attempt to form a junction with Mustapha Kemal Pasha's Turkish national army. The Bulgarians are assuming a threatening attitude towards the Greeks in Northern Thrace.

BOLSEVIKI ADVANCE

Berlin, July 20.—The Bolshevik army on the northern and of the Russo-Polish battle front is advancing at the rate of 12 to 15 miles a day, according to press dispatches from Warsaw today.

Using Minsk as a base of operations the Russians are making storm attacks against the Polish positions defending Novogrudok, Baranovitchi and the Oginski canal. On the southern end of the front the Russians are reported to have captured Kamenetz Podolski. Novogrudok is 80 miles east of the fortress of Grodno. Baranovitchi is an important railway city, five lines converging there. Kamenetz Podolski is in Old Russia, only 10 miles from the pre-war border of Galicia.

CROSS ROUMANIAN FRONTIER.

London, July 20.—Unconfirmed reports are current in Belgrade that Russian Bolshevik troops have crossed the Rumanian frontier at Bessarabia, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Vienna today. The dispatch says that "business circles at Belgrade are frightened."

The foregoing cablegram does not indicate clearly whether the Russians have crossed the pre-war borders of Rumania or whether they have merely entered the province of Bessarabia. Rumania has already proclaimed her annexation of Bessarabia, which before the war was a part of Russia.

YOUNGEST SON OF EX-KAISER BURIED

Berlin, July 20.—Private funeral services were conducted today for Prince Joachim, youngest son of the ex-kaiser, who committed suicide last Saturday morning. Four of the brothers of Joachim were present, but not the ex-kaiser, the ex-kaiserin nor the former crown prince, who are in Holland. It is said that the former empress has not yet been told of the death of her favorite son because of the critical condition of her health. Members of the old court profess ignorance of the whereabouts of Joachim's wife from whom he was recently divorced. She did not attend the funeral.

IRISH TOWN SACKED; SHOPS ALL BURNED CAUSING BIG LOSS

London, July 20.—The Irish town of Tuam was sacked early today and all the shops were burned, said a Skibbereen dispatch to the Star. Officer Carey of the Royal Irish constabulary, was assassinated at Dunmore, the dispatch added.

The Dublin correspondent of the Evening Standard estimates the damage at Tuam at $500,000.

CHAIRMANSHIP OF DEMOCRATIC PARTY UNDECIDED AS COMMITTEE CONVENES

Moore Urged By Cox To Reconsider Refusal Of Honor.

Columbus, July 20.—Edmund H. Moore of Ohio has definitely refused to accept the chairmanship of the Democratic national committee, Governor Cox announced at 12:30 today following a two hour conference in which the governor exhausted his persuasive powers in an effort to induce his convention campaign manager to accept the post.

Columbus, O., July 20.—When the Democratic national committee, consisting of 53 committeemen and an equal number of committee women convened in the ball room of the hotel Desler, at 1 o'clock this morning, it was still apparently a toss-up as to whether Edmund H. Moore of Ohio or Homer S. Cummings of Connecticut would be selected as the new national chairman with the task of directing the efforts of the Democratic party to place Cox and Roosevelt in the White House.

Uncertainty was reflected in both the demeanor and conversation of the committeemen and most of them could muster as many arguments in support of the proposal that Moore would be chosen as for the prediction that the post would go to Cummings, though a few continued to talk of Daniel C. Roper, former Congressman White or Congressman Cordell Hull, of Tennessee, as possibilities.

From the first Governor Cox has favored Edmund H. Moore for the chairmanship and has steadfastly refused to name a second choice in the hope that Mr. Moore could be induced to reconsider his decision, announced at Youngstown yesterday not to accept the place. It was in the hope of being able to accomplish this end that the governor held a long conference with Mr. Moore this morning.

"Mr. Moore made his announcement in Youngstown while the fatigue of the strenuous battle at San Francisco was still upon him," said return to the activities of the committee meeting here today will cause him to see things in a new light."

Immediately after the knotty problem of the chairmanship has been disposed of, the committee is expected to take up the question of the date and place of the notification ceremonies, August 10 has been tentatively agreed upon though it is possible that this may be changed. All indications pointed to Dayton as the probable place of holding the ceremony.

Tentative plans for the speaking tours to be conducted by Governor Cox and his running mate, Franklin D. Roosevelt, were drawn up today for submission to the committee. They are understood to contemplate at least one trip through both the eastern and western states by Governor Cox and two trips of approximately three weeks each through the west for Secretary Roosevelt. Governor Cox and Mr. Roosevelt will be said, will probably close the campaign with a joint tour of the east. These plans of course are subject to revision by the committee.

EIGHT MEN CAUGHT IN GROUND IN BLAST

Pittsburgh, July 20.—John Luteman, night foreman; two fire bosses, two pumpers and three laborers were engulfed and are believed to have been killed by an explosion in the mine of the Union Collieries company at Renton, 18 miles from here. The explosion blew the cage out of the shaft, and as soon as repairs to the hoisting apparatus can be made rescue crews will endeavor to find the buried men.

Government men rigged up a bucket and a small party was sent down the shaft. They found no evidence of fire and could detect no gas. Nor could they find any traces of Luteman and his companions.

SURGEONS MEET IN PARIS

Paris, July 20.—Alexandre Hiller and welcomed the International Surgical Society, which opened its fifth congress here with a number of prominent surgeons present, including 20 Americans. In the first technical paper, William Keen, of Philadelphia, President, dealt with the effect of alcohol on the human body, which he described as harmful.

CIVILIANS BLOW UP MILITARY LORRIES INJURING SOLDIERS

Seventy Britishers Are Hurt In Fighting At Cork.

London, July 20.—The question as to whether the Most Rev. Daniel Mannix, archbishop of Melbourne, Australia, shall be barred from Ireland in view of his recent utterances in the United States, which are reported here as anti-British, is under consideration by the British government. This statement was made by Andrew Bonar Law, the government spokesman.

Two military lorries loaded with soldiers which passed through the streets of Cork were attacked at an early hour by civilians with bombs, and blown up. Between 60 and 70 soldiers were injured. The civilians threw 29 bombs.

This attack followed a night of terror, into which the city was plunged as the result of street fighting, in which Sinn Feiners and the military participated. Two men were killed and some 40 were wounded in the gun fighting, which brought the total of casualties well over the 100 mark.

STRIKE GAS WELL ON UPPER BELLBROOK PIKE ON TUESDAY

Workmen Discover Gas While Drilling For Water.

Natural gas was struck by workmen drilling for water on the farm of F. S. Dale on the Upper Bellbrook pike two and one half miles from Xenia Tuesday.

The gas filled the four inch iron casing which had been sunk for the water, and when ignited burned to a height of about six feet.

It was struck at a depth of 123 feet, W. M. Smith, who was in charge of the work of drilling, well noticed the gas when it bubbled to the surface of the water.

The flow was suppressed and the gas will be lighted again after dark Tuesday night.

BOY REFUSES ALL HOMES COMMITTED TO INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

Lester Hosier, aged 15, a ward of the State Board of Charities, who has the wanderlust so bad that he refuses to "stay put," wherever the board finds a home for him, was committed to the Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster Monday by Juvenile Judge J. C. Marshall. He was taken to Lancaster Tuesday by Probation Officer J. E. Watts. The lad is a son of John Hosier, who while serving as dog catcher several years ago, was murdered.

The boy runs away from every home found for him. A few days ago he deserted a home near Springfield, where he was being treated like a son, and came to the home of his brother, Oscar Hosier in the East End of Xenia. Probation Officer Watts went after him, and while the officer was at the front door, the boy slipped out the back door and ran away. It was learned that he was in Cedarville, and Officer Watts with Deputy Sheriff George A. Birch drove to Cedarville after him. The officers watched for the boy, and saw him sneak off a freight train as it pulled into town. The lad began looking for Officer Watts, but he was unfamiliar with Deputy Sheriff Birch. He was cornered and taken into custody by the two officers.

MARION PREPARING FOR HUGE CROWD THURSDAY

Preparations Made To Feed 100,000 People On Day Of Official Notification Proceedings In Ohio City.

Marion, O., July 20.—The people of Marion are preparing for a host of visitors next Thursday when Senator Warren G. Harding is to be notified officially of his nomination by the Republican party as its candidate for the presidency.

D. R. Crissinger, president of the Marion civic association, which has charge of the local arrangements, said today that preparations had been made to feed 100,000 people two meals that day if such should be the demand. "There will be no profiteering here on that day," Crissinger gave assurance. The civic association has discussed prices with merchants and restaurant keepers and reasonable charges will prevail throughout Marion. Irresponsible parties charging unreasonable prices will have their places closed immediately, but we do not fear anything of that kind.

"We have arranged for 50,000 buns for sandwiches on that day. Thirty-two quarters of beef will be roasted on the high school grounds. The Lincoln Park association will serve a $1 dinner. Restaurants and sandwich stands will be serving meals throughout the day. Churches are prepared to feed 1200 people.

"Few hotel rooms will be available unless reservations have been made, but there will be at least 1,000 rooms in private homes to be had at 75 cents to $1.50 per day. Everything possible has been done for the comfort of visitors."

It is expected that Marion will be crowded Thursday and Friday. After then its citizens will have a breathing spell until the set pilgrim-

DRY LEADERS TO DISCUSS NOMINEES

Columbus, July 20.—Announcement was made here by James A. White, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon league, that the meeting of the executive committee of the national organization will be held in Washington Thursday, instead of Columbus, as originally planned. The purpose of the meeting, as announced by league leaders, is to determine whether the organization will support Governor Cox, the Democratic nominee, or Senator Harding, the Republican presidential candidate, or neither, leaving the choice of candidates to the individual voter.

RUTH BREAKS LAST YEAR'S HIT RECORD

New York, July 20.—Babe Ruth broke the world's record for home runs, established by himself last year, not once, but twice, at the Polo grounds yesterday. The Colossus of Swat drove one home run into the right field bleachers in the fourth inning of the second game between the New York Yankees and the Chicago White Sox. This made 30 for the season, passing the record of 29 which Ruth made last year. In the ninth inning he drove another homer into the right field grand stand, making it 31 with the season still nearly three months to go.

HUNGARIAN CABINET FORMED IS REPORT

London, July 20.—A new Hungarian cabinet has been formed by Dr. Tepeky to succeed the Semadeni cabinet which resigned on June 8, said a news agency dispatch from Budapest today.

INCREASES TOTALLING SIX HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS ARE GRANTED

Chicago, July 20.—Wage increases totalling $600,000,000 were granted to the 1,800,000 railroad employees of the United States in the decision of the federal labor board on the recent demands of the "big four" brotherhoods and associated crafts.

While the award was not entirely satisfactory to the brotherhoods it was understood that it was sufficiently large to be accepted tentatively by their chiefs and submitted to a referendum of the men. Their decision to await the action by the individual unions, ended the possibility of an immediate strike.

E. C. Whittier took the ruling of the labor board for the railroad corporations. He said that the roads "would accept and abide by the award."

B. M. Jewell was present to represent the union brotherhoods. He made no comment on the award but indicated that it will be submitted to a referendum.

Chairman R. M. Barton presented the board's decision. The award was made by groups, each classification receiving a set increase per hour, or, in the case of engine and train employees per mile.

Men acquainted with the situation saw reason to hope that the labor board's finding would be accepted in toto by the men, in as much as the decision of the leaders to submit the awards to referendum followed a careful consideration of the wage increases based on advance information. Their action in accepting the board's decision, even tentatively, it was said, was to be taken as a sign that they would urge its adoption by the men.

Section 1.—The increases in add eight times the hourly increase wages and rates hereby established specified to the daily rate. For employees shall be effective as of May 1, 1920, to be paid by the month, add two and are to be paid according to the time served to all who were then in the carriers' service and remained therein or who have since come into service and remained therein.

Section 2.—The provisions of this decision will not apply in cases where amounts less than $30.00 per month are paid to individuals for special service which takes only a portion of their time from outside employment or business.

Section 3.—Increases specified in this decision are to be added to the hourly rates as established by or under the authority of the United States Railroad administration for employees now being paid by the hour. For employees paid by the day, the exact amount of their back pay payments.

SHAMROCK LEADING RESOLUTE AT OUTSET

Lipton Boat Ahead On First Leg Of Tuesday's Race.

Aboard U. S. S. Goldborough off Sandy Hook, July 20.—Via wireless. After being delayed 15 minutes waiting for more of a breeze Shamrock and Resolute got away at 11:15 (eastern standard time) today in an effort to decide the second of their races for the America's cup. Only a slight breeze was blowing.

Sir Thomas Lipton's big green yacht got away in the lead. It looked from the press boat like Resolute deliberately allowed Shamrock to start first. The balloon on Shamrock would not break out as Shamrock slipped across the line and was partly hauled down. Five minutes after the start Resolute had nearly caught Shamrock. The official starting time was given as follows: Shamrock 11:15:48; Resolute 11:16:26.

At 11:22 Resolute passed Shamrock to leeward.

Today's race is being run on a triangle course, the first ten mile leg being a reach south, southeast, the second a beat west by north and the third a reach to the finish line north, east by north.

Captain Burton was sailing the Shamrock and his wife was acting as time keeper.

Ten minutes after the race started Resolute, even though she had started her job and made preparations to beat to the first mark. Shamrock was just a mile astern but some what to the weather.

At noon the Resolute ran into a soft spot and Shamrock drew up with a time within less than a quarter of a mile of the leader.

At 12:10 Shamrock passed Resolute to windward and took the lead again. The little fisherman's staysail set ahead of Shamrock's mast seemed to draw nicely.

At 12:15 Shamrock was a quarter of a mile ahead of Resolute. She picked up a draught of air and sailed around Resolute to windward, luck being with Lipton's boat for the first time. Resolute still was to her leeward when she seemed to grow well but could not compete with Shamrock's baby forestay sail.

Both yachts had worked to the windward of the course to the first mark and at 12:30 Shamrock bore away from it with Resolute more than 300 yards astern. Inshore a southwestward began working out towards the course.

At 1 o'clock with the first mark three miles to leeward, Resolute jibed over to starboard and headed for it. Shamrock had overshot the mark in an effort to pick up the new breeze but as it failed she lost by the move. The breeze came in again from the west, letting the Resolute up and placing her less than a quarter of a mile astern of Shamrock. Shamrock jibbed two minutes later and headed for the mark.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED GREEK CHRISTIANS SLAUGHTERED BY TURKISH FORCES

London, July 20.—Fifteen hundred Christians are said to have perished when Turkish nationalists set fire to a Greek church at Fouladlik according to a Constantinople dispatch to the Daily Express today quoting the Greek Patriarchate in the Turkish capital. The Turkish nationalists were said to have herded a majority of the Christian population of Fouladlik into the Greek church and then applied the torch.

IS IT RHEUMATISM?

Aren't You Really On the Wrong Track?

A good share of so-called rheumatism is caused by weak kidneys. When the kidneys fail to clear the blood of uric acid, the acid irritates the delicate nerves. Torturing pains dart through the affected part whenever it is moved. By strengthening the kidneys, Doan's Kidney Pills have proven their worth in thousands of so-called rheumatic cases, lumbago, sciatica, gravel, and urinary disorders. Doan's are well known in Xenia and warmly recommended by Xenia people. Read this Xenia case:

W. A. Simons, 340 E. Church St., says: "My kidney trouble first showed up with soreness in my back and before long had pains all through my legs. It got to be like rheumatic pains and noticed my kidneys weren't acting right. The kidney secretions contained sediment, too. I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Sayre & Hemphill's Drug Store and they soon cured me." Price 60c., at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Simons had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

FRIENDS CHURCH HAS NEW PASTOR, REPORT

The Pastoral Committee of the Friends church announces that the services of Lewis G. and Mary Pim of Leesburg, Ohio, have been secured to serve the church as pastors the coming year. Formerly these Friends were located in the northern part of the State in Ohio Yearly Meeting, where they occupied a large place in the activities of the church. For a year they served the Spring Valley Friends church; and it was with deep regret that Spring Valley released them a year ago to care for Mrs. Pim's invalid father at Leesburg. Both Mr. and Mrs. Pim are ordained ministers, and both are strong gospel preachers. They come highly recommended; and they have had wide pastoral experience.

Hzmer G. Biddlecum, who has served the Xenia Friends Church as pastor the past six years, handed in his resignation several weeks ago. He has accepted a call to the Friends church at Emporia, Kansas, and will remove there the first of September.

RECIPES FOR A DAY.
Jellied Chicken—One medium sized chicken, one pound of cold cooked tongue, one tablespoon of granulated gelatin, three hard cooked eggs, celery salt, two tablespoons cold water, one pint broth or brown stock.
Roast chicken. When cold slice and lay in a mold with alternate layers of sliced tongue and occasional slices of hard cooked egg; season with celery salt. Soak gelatin in water five minutes and dissolve in boiling stock. Pour over the meat. Let stand several hours in refrigerator or cool place before unmolding. Half of this will serve a small family.
Succotash Salad—To a pint of seasoned strained tomato liquid add one tablespoon gelatin which has been soaked in a little cold water and one cup of succotash. Mold in cups, then serve on lettuce with mayonnaise.
Cheese Biscuits—These are nice to serve with a salad. Make regular baking powder biscuit dough.

Roll out to about half an inch thickness. Spread lightly with butter, then with thin slices of cheese. Form roll and cut an inch and a half thick. Bake in rather quick oven.
Asparagus With Eggs on Toast—Wash and cut asparagus into pieces. Boil in salted water for twenty minutes and drain. Make a white sauce using one tablespoon butter, two tablespoons flour, one cup milk, salt and pepper to taste. Add asparagus to sauce. Poach one egg for each person to be served and place egg on a piece of toast. Pour asparagus on toast around egg, sprinkle a little paprika on top of egg and garnish with parsley.

PUDDINGS.
Cherry Pudding—One cup sugar, one cup milk, two teaspoons baking powder, butter the size of a lemon rubbed in with the flour. Make batter stiff; add pinch of salt. Bake in a large pan. Pour over the following mixture:
One and one-half cups cherries, one cup sugar, small piece butter, two cups of boiling water.
Cornmeal Pudding—Two cups of boiling water, one cup cornmeal; boil until like mush, then add one pint sweet milk, two eggs, one cup of sugar, one teaspoon cinnamon, one-half cup raisins.
Bake in the oven until done. Serve with cream. Try this in place of so many pies.
Bread Pudding—Two cups bread broken in small pieces, one pint sweet milk poured over the bread; let stand twenty-five minutes, add two eggs, one cup of sugar, two tablespoons butter, one teaspoon lemon extract. Bake until done. Any housewife understands her oven best and can tell about the baking part.

"JUST A GIRL"

BY JANE PHELPS

NEW PLANS
Chapter 67
I had heard that girls were well treated in one of the large department stores, and determined to try my luck at selling goods again if I could secure a place in that particular store I was reading in the advertisements in the "Help Wanted Column" when Mary came in.

"You ain't goin' to leave are you, Zena?" she asked with a troubled look on her face.

"What made you, Zena? I don't know how I shall ever get on with you away."

"Several things combined to make me go," I told her. "Mr. Watkins' attentions were making me uncomfortable. I would not tell her just how far he had gone, or how his action had made it impossible for me to remain in the restaurant. I knew she surmised there was something more; but she asked no other questions. 'It is too hard for me, Mary. I am sure I should break down if I went on, I shall try to get work in some place where I won't have to lift anything heavy. Those trays are killing for a girl unless she is very strong. But don't think I am not sorry to leave you, Mary. I don't think I could have the courage were we not living here together so I can see you every night.'"

"Perhaps you think it is going to be nice for me! I am as tickled to have you go as if I had dropped a flatiron on my foot. What's the use of bein' boss if you're lonesome—" she stopped suddenly. "Zena, you are sure my being boss, wasn't part to blame for you going? If it was, he can give the job to some other girl."

"Oh, you dear!" I exclaimed, half laughing, half crying. "I should just love to be bossed by you! You'll make a good one. Don't ever think so meanly of me as that, Mary. I am just as glad to see you get on as if it were myself—more so, I really believe. I do get so discouraged at times."

"It ain't no wonder, a girl like you! Why don't you go to bed now, then rest till Monday? You look all tuckered out. No one ain't going to give a new girl a job if she looks sick."

"I believe you are right, Mary. Altho I don't know how to spare a day from work." It was Thursday night, and I would have three whole days in which to rest and fix my clothes.

"You do what I tell you, Asint! A boss now? I'm going to earn more too and you can borrow all you want to."

"No, Mary. I shall never borrow as long as I can get work, or have anything on which I can raise a penny. It is a bad habit, and they are easily learned. Dad used to say, 'I guess your dad was pretty smart.'"

"He was, Mary, smart, and good, I never can hope to be like him yet I never have known anyone whom I so wanted to resemble."

"You suit me all right."

I sometimes think that were it not for a certain sense of humor I possessed, I wouldn't have been able to endure my life at this time. But usually I could find something ludicrous in every situation. Then, too, Mary Murphy was an endless joy to me. Her quaint views of life, her slang, her way of expressing herself often turned my tears into laughter.

Friday I remained in bed nearly all day. A lassitude such as I never before had felt, covered me. Knowing I had no work, and having decided not to look for any until Monday, I relaxed as I had not done in months.

About 5 I arose and went out to buy something for our supper. I had told Mary I would get something good for her and cook it myself. It would be a change and I might not be able to do it after I secured work.

I had eaten nothing all day, and felt a little weak but never imagined I would not be all right until our supper was ready. But as I neared the house with my bundles, I suddenly felt dizzy, things turned black and I knew no more.

Tomorrow—Robbed!

FULKERSON FAMILY HOLDS REUNION

Twenty members of the immediate family were present at the family reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Fulkerson on the Lower Bellbrook pike all day Saturday.

Among those from a distance present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fulkerson and two sons, of Jackson, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fulkerson, of Lime Rock, Conn., who are visiting here, and Walter Fulkerson, of Dunkirk, Ind., who was here for the day.

The reunion honored Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fulkerson, of North King street, who recently celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Came Home To Die

"Three years ago I came home thinking two or three weeks would be my limit to live. I had suffered for 15 years from colic attacks and severe liver and stomach trouble. I happened to see an advertisement of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and purchased a bottle at the drug store and after taking the first dose I felt better than I had for 15 years. I am now in the best of health—thanks to Mayr's Wonderful Remedy." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded at Sayre & Hemphill's and druggists everywhere.

OUR CRAVING FOR THE COUNTRY CLUB AND GOLF INDICATES THE SPIRIT OF THE AGE.

"Xenia Excels" in being as "Comfortable" an old town as you will find anywhere. Not as progressive as Detroit or Akron in securing new industries, as means for increasing population, but with church and school and local characteristics of a nature to make it quite "Comfortable" as a place of residence.

And as evidence that she is not asleep in her comfort, we cite the fact of her recent assumption of more city-like style by the creation of a Chamber of Commerce, and is now talking Country Club and a Golf Course.

Does this latter proposition startle you as too progressive, staid old citizen? Well, it needn't, for in a little while you will acknowledge that they came only as a natural consequence of the progressive spirit of the age.

Have you ever heard of George Ade? He is an Indiana author of note, and has just now done a good turn for those of our citizens who favor the Country Club and Golf Course. He has a fine article in the American magazine for July entitled: "Look Out for Your Husbands—Golf is Coming."

The substance of the article is that the Golf Club is no longer confined to large cities, but is rapidly becoming a pastime for small cities as well. And he makes good his claim by giving the proof. Perhaps we cannot do a better thing for those interested than to give lengthy extracts from Mr. Ade's article, as follows:

Is golf going into the smaller towns? Undoubtedly. You have heard it called a "rich man's game." That is because so many clubs adjacent to big cities have to use a lot of fancy real estate, and are extravagant in the management of the club house and the course, and pay fancy salaries. The dues and assessments in many of these clubs have terrified the player of moderate means. In the meantime, the little nine-hole clubs in the smaller towns have continued to do business. The public courses, operated by municipalities and usually charging a small playing fee, are congested with players from dawn until dusk.

In Scotland the clerk or mill hand returns from his work at five-thirty P. M. or therabouts, has his tea and seed cake, and goes out on the "links" and plays 18 holes, for the twilight does not thicken until after nine o'clock. He has his supper after the game. A set of clubs will last him for years. He will average several rounds to every ball used up. Would Scotland tolerate a game intended for spendthrifts? Don't ask foolish questions.

With the gradual cutting down of the working day in America, the Saturday half-holidays, the dull intervals in both factory and farm towns when all business is condensed into a few "rush hours" each week, don't you see that we have thousands of men and women of all ages who will be candidates for golf every summer afternoon and evening? Furthermore, for these house dwellers to get into the free open, with the springy turf under their feet, and the green stretches ahead of them and the ecstasy of contest tugging at their hearts—it will be a God's blessing to every one of them.

It gratifies the instinct, which every man has kept over from his primitive forebears, to get beyond the house walls and fences, and scout around bareheaded through fields and forests and along meandering "cricks." It combines a communing with nature and the lust for victory and that, it will be conceded, is some combination.

If the doctors are safe in predicting an epidemic when they know that germs are finding their way into certain people who have not been rendered immune, are we not justified in posting up our prophecy in regard to golf? The germs are everywhere and working incessantly. No one between the cradle and the grave is immune.

Small towns ahoy. Golf is coming!

THE THREAT OF THE BOYCOTT OF HER FOOD SUPPLY BRINGS GERMANY TO HER KNEES.

There is no doubt events in Europe have taken a turn for the better and that a spirit of reasonableness is at last being shown. Whether the change has come soon enough to prevent serious trouble has yet to be discovered. Nevertheless, it has come.

Proceedings at Spa have made a much better impression upon the public mind in England than did the proceedings in Paris.

"Economic Pressure" are big sounding words. Their meaning would be better understood if stated in the language they usually imply, that is: "Starve Them Out."

Lack of food, and the threat of it, has been one of the chief troubles in all countries, at all times, and never more so than during the late war and since in Europe. It is the kind of "pressure" which comes home to the individual as no other does.

No one knows that better than Germany. She knew it during the war, and her most powerful weapon against the Entente was found in her effort to cut off food shipments by closing the Dardanelles to supplies coming from Russia and Rumania and by trying to cut off supplies from America by use of the submarine. Her inability was mainly due to America's action in growing so much food and in being economical in food consumption in the war years.

The defeat of Germany was complete, and the German people need no further lesson in the wickedness and folly of war. Having proper regard for their experience, they are probably least likely to disturb the world's peace in the future, knowing the risk of economic boycott.

That view of the situation among large numbers of people in England explains in some measure their willingness to allow, indeed to assist, the German people to recover their productive power and to not maintain the hatred felt before they realized how greatly the German people, as well as the Austrians, had suffered.

It is essential to appreciate the growing sympathy of liberal-minded people in England for the sufferings of Germany and Austria, more particularly German and Austrian women and children, in order to understand the cause for the great change in atmosphere at Spa in comparison with that of Paris. That atmosphere is more important even than the concrete proposals, and the change should be noted and understood.

WHY NOT ANOTHER PARTY—A BASEBALL PRESIDENTIAL TICKET

Everybody is starting up his own little presidential campaign party these days. And so far not one of the parties has included a baseball plank in its platform.

So how about starting our own party, brother and sister fans? Babe, Ruth for president and Nick Altrick for vice president! How does that sound? And if Babe keeps on hitting homers a couple of seasons Ruppert of the Yanks will have all the money in the country, so we might as well make him secretary of treasury.

HUMORIST ON FIRST CHAUTAUQUA NIGHT PROGRAM TUESDAY

Roscoe Gilmore Stott, who lectures Tuesday night on the first night's program of the Redpath Chautauqua which is here for seven days, is a humorist of note.

Mr. Stott's humorous and dramatic sallies have made him one of the liveliest wires connected with the foot lights and his appearance on the local program is certain to be a popular one. His lecture is varied and his subject entertaining, as he has contributed verse, humor, short stories and articles to such well known magazines as the Ladies' Home Journal, Life, Leslie's, Judge and other publications.

The College Singing Girls opened the week's engagement Tuesday afternoon following the usual introductory ceremonies and will again appear on the program Tuesday night. This company has a wide and varied repertoire presenting selections from grand and light opera, popular songs and college songs. Characters impersonations and readings are also featured and many changes of costume are introduced in their program.

Wednesday afternoon the Musical Arts trio holds the stage, the same company again appearing Wednesday night. The trio is composed of Lucille Collette, graduate of piano and violin in the Paris Conservatory, Mary Seltzer, New York harpist, and Gladys Petit Bumstead, lyric soprano and composer. In the evening they will divide the program with Adrian M. Newsens, monologist, who will present an entire play without assistance. His play repertoire consists of such successes as "To Him That Hath," "A Message From Mars" or "The Singular Life." His program is certain to be entertaining.

FIRST VICTORY MEDAL ARRIVES IN XENIA

Probably the first Victory medal, issued by the government to ex-service men, has been received in this city by Ohmer Tate, Post Commander of Joseph P. Foody Post, No. 95, American Legion.

Efforts are now being made by Mr. Tate to secure the distribution of the medals in Greene County by Foody Post, thereby handling a service that would no doubt be appreciated by all men entitled to the medals in this county.

The medals are of bronze and are hung on a red, white and blue ribbon. On the front are given the names of the battles or offenses in which the recipient took part, while on the back are the words, "The Great War for Civilization." Grouped around the coat of arms of the United States are the names of the Allies, France, Serbia, Italy, Japan, Montenegro, Russia, Greece, Great Britain, Belgium, Brazil, Portugal, Rumania, and China.

HANSON TO TESTIFY

Chicago, July 20.—Judge Oscar Hebel, sitting in the trial of 20 communist laborites, charged with having conspired to overthrow the Government by force, ruled that testimony of Ole Hanson, former Mayor of Seattle, and Harry Wilson, United States Secret Agent, who posed in Seattle as Secretary of the Soldiers, Sailors and Workmen's Soviet Council, was admissible.

DINNER STORIES

"Half a dozen black hens' eggs," said the grocer. "You've got me! I can't tell black hens' eggs from any other kind."

"I can," said the boy. "Mother told me how to." "Well, here you are," said the grocer. "Let me see you pick out half a dozen black hens' eggs." The boy selected six of the biggest in the box. "These are black hens' eggs," he said, and the grocer, feeling that he had been "done," took the money offered for them and let him go.

A doctor who was superintendent of the Sunday school in a small village asked one of the boys this question: "Willie, will you tell me what we must do in order to get to heaven?" Said Willie, "We must die." "Very true," replied the doctor, "but tell me, what we must do before we die?" "We must get sick," said Willie, "and send for you."

"I reckon you had a right lively time in Kansas City?" insinuated an acquaintance. "Tollable," replied Gabe Gosnell of Grudge, "but nothing like what I probably would have had if I wasn't considerable lively on my feet. You see, up in Kay See, if you meet a respectable looking man after 4 o'clock in the afternoon, anywhere the least bit off to one side, he's a hold-up and robs you. And if you meet one that don't look respectable, he's a plain clothes policeman, and pounds you because he thinks you're a hold-up. So I was practically on the keen jump all the time I was there, dodging one or the other."

OUR LITTLE JOBS.

Some jobs are worse than writing verse, and some are more enchanting; I'd rather play a harp all day than be a statesman ranting. For while some men will fry in beastly summer weather; and thresh old themes and hopjoint dreams, where reubens get together. I wouldn't speak six times a week to be a blooming seraph; I'd rather sing than be a king, or coroner, or sheriff. Let others rise, 'neath burning skies, our sacred bulwarks guarding; I've no desire to soak my lyre, to be a Warren Harding. The statesmen scrap and fuss and yap, and Gilbert jumps on Billy, while in the shade I drink limeade, and knock the timbrel silly. My record sleeps and no one weeps o'er crimes I have committed; the country grins when statesmen's sins are to news columns fitted. Some jobs are slick and span and spick compared with writing sonnets, but oh, the woe that statesmen know when bees are in their bonnets! I do not sigh for office high, I wish no White House laurel; I'd rather write my rhyme tonight, and spring an ancient moral.

TALKING MACHINE RECORDS ARE STOLEN

A report was made to police Tuesday that several phonograph records had been stolen from the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.

The records were taken sometime over Sunday and were missed Monday. The case is the second of the kind to affect the organization, all but one of the records owned and maintained by the Xenia Business Mens' Association having been stolen some time ago. About a week ago Secretary L. C. Tingley purchased several new records for use on the Victrola owned by the organization, and these were taken Sunday. Owing to the offices of the Hager Straw Board and Paper Company on the third floor of the building it is impossible to lock the building and provide only members with keys as is the case in lodges. Many people who are not members of the organization frequent the rooms, especially on Sunday when there are no officials present, and it is believed that someone who held no membership in the Chamber carried off the records.

LEAPS TO DEATH AT NIAGARA

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 20.—The police said they believed that the man who Sunday jumped from the abutment at the American end of the upper bridge was Fred Lehman, of Pittsburg, who had reported to them that he had been robbed of $600. After leaping from the bridge the man was struggling in the water in an attempt to regain the shore, but sank before aid could reach him.

LATIMER'S NINE TO MEET ZANESVILLE AT LANCASTER THURSDAY

"Tack" Latimer's Cincinnati Division baseball club of the Pennsylvania railroad league, will attempt to break into the winning column at Lancaster, Thursday, where the Zanesville division team will be met.

The game will be staged in Lancaster at the earnest solicitations of Lancaster business men, who are furnishing a band and making elaborate plans for the staging of the contest. It will be the second game of the season for locals. Latimer's athletes having lost an interesting game to the Columbus division at Columbus last week by the score of 3-1.

Wetzel who dropped last week's game will likely again start for the Cincinnati division nine. This lad hurled an excellent game last week and if his teammates had been able to hit the offerings of Linston, he would have come out on top of the heap. Manager Latimer is proud of this able moundman and it is his claim that the big league scouts will be giving him the once over before the season comes to a climax.

LETTERS

Curly Head—If you will treat the sunburned parts of the skin with cold creams and bleaching lotions, I think you will find that color and the spots will gradually fade away. These spots are probably only summer freckles anyway. Protect the skin as much as possible from future sunburns by powdering heavily before you go out.

Peggy—A girl with dark brown hair, dark brown eyes, and an olive complexion, is the real brunette type and will look best in striking colors and combinations. Both dark brown and black will bring out the dark shades in her eyes and hair, while such colors as Indian red, henna, orange, cayenne and tan, will emphasize her coloring by their contrast. Pastel shades will do this also. Brown fox furs would probably be her most sensible choice; although if she has a very clear complexion, white fox furs will be very stunning for evening.

Busy B.—If you wish a prompt answer to any query, send me a letter with a self-addressed and stamped envelope enclosed. All letters to be answered in the column, must of course wait their turn, and there are so many sometimes that I cannot always answer them as quickly as I would like.

For your most becoming colors, see answer to "Peggy" above. For your hands, use plenty of cold cream, olive oil, or even plain lard. Rub the hands full of the oil at night before you go to bed, wiping off all that remains on the surface of the skin. And when you have finished washing dishes, rub the hands full of oil. In regard to the beauty treatments mentioned, I do not see why you need spend a lot of money to be taught the perfectly sane and simple things which you either know already or which you can learn very easily by reading this column or any sensible book on beauty treatments.

Firestone

Cushion Truck Tires

More truck tire problems in more lines of business are answered by Firestone Cushion Tires than by any other type of tire.

They have all the cushioning power needed for proper protection to your load and truck. They have the wearing strength of regular solid equipment that means the maximum mileage.

12% to 27% More Rubber

Firestone Cushion Tires have a much greater bulk of material. That is one reason why they ride easier. It is obvious, too, that this means longer wear. The extra wide tread provides approximately 15% to 20% more area of road contact—giving firmer traction under all conditions.

300% More Efficient in Heat Radiation

Overheating is a common danger to truck tire equipment. But Firestone engineers have evolved this shape that lessens the strain through a different flexing of the rubber.

Any Truck Immediately Equipped

Firestone Cushion Tires are built to fit any S. A. E. base. No wheel changes necessary. The nearest Firestone truck tire dealer can apply them to your units without delay or added expense.

If you want resiliency plus extra-long wear, and if you want the practical economy of most miles per dollar, put on Firestone Cushion Tires.

BUG-OLOGY

What do you call them?

Bedbug (Cimex lectularius). The origin of the name bedbug is unknown, but is supposed to be naturally suggested as it is de scriptive. There are many local names for these parasites, as for illustration, around Boston they are called "Chinches" from Baltimore comes the name "Mahogany Bica" in New York they are styled, "Red Co's." around Pittsburgh they are called "Pesky Devils," in Cincinnati and the South "Night-riders," in St. Louis and Chicago district "Crimson Ramblers," the great West "Pilgrims" The old saying, "the bedbug has no teeth, but they get there just the same," is correct. Instead of teeth they possess a piercing and sucking beak to draw and rob you of your blood for their own body.

Bedbugs, no matter what you may call them, or where they came from, science has found a way to rid them if you will use faithfully the new chemical Pesky Devil Quicker "P. D. Q." A 5cc package makes one quart, enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches, fleas, ants or cockles, and their eggs as well. P. D. Q. will not injure bedding, and each package contains a patent, sprout to enable you to get them in the hard-to-get-at places. Impossible for Pesky Devils to exist where P. D. Q. is used.
